

TWO MEN FOUND STRANGELY DEAD

Thalia Theatre Watchman's Clothes
Burned, Shoemaker's Arm
Bent Behind Back.

Two men were found dead to-day in their places of employment. One, Modesto Amendolagina, night watchman at the Thalia Theatre in the Bowery, was discovered in an old dressing room. He lay upon a worn couch and there was a bullet hole through his forehead and a burned patch on his undershirt. Beneath his head was a revolver. An overcoat which did not belong to the dead man was the only clue the police have. He was unmarried and lived at No. 112 Mott Street.

The other victim was Andrew Mills, a shoemaker, employed in the Manhattan Shoe Shop, No. 201 East 6th Street, where thirty-four other workers are engaged. Mills was found lying on his right side, his right arm in the sleeve of his overcoat, his left arm bent behind his back. There were scratches on the left side of his face and the foot of a work chair rested on his left foot.

FEW IMMIGRANTS DETAINED.

Only 27 Out of 1,201 New Arrivals Found Unclean.

City Health officers guarding against the entrance of typhus into New York have examined 340 immigrants at the Barge Office in the last twenty-four hours. It was announced to-day. Three were sent to Willard Parker Hospital to be cleaned of vermin. At Grand Central Station 522 immigrants were examined and twenty-four detained. Of the 259 passengers of the steamship Canada, examined at a Brooklyn pier, all were clean and were permitted to land.

Health Commissioner Copeland is going to Washington this evening to attend a conference to outline a general plan of combating the typhus menace. Dr. Leland E. Cofer, Port Health Officer, declared the work would suffer a drawback as a result of the action yesterday of House conferees in Washington in striking out a $200,000 appropriation for quarantine facilities here.

Chilean Concession to Krupp Reported. BERLIN, Feb. 24.—The Vossische Zeitung reports today that the Chilean Government has given a concession to the Krupp with the right to acquire land to build factories. A large number of German workmen will take advantage of the concession, the newspaper says, and emigrate to Chile.

BLAME PRETTY GIRL FOR DISH SMASHING

Waitress Accused of Malicious Mischief, Occurring When She Dined Out.

Miss Grace Martin, twenty-two and pretty, who described herself as a waitress, living at No. 228 West 57th Street, Manhattan, was arrested and taken to Brooklyn early to-day on a charge of malicious mischief. It is alleged that while she was dining Jan. 18 with several other girls in the Berkshire restaurant, at Plathush and Atlantic Avenues, Brooklyn, trouble arose, and a showcase and dishes, valued at $300, were broken.

WRITERS TO DINE AND DANCE

Incidentally There Will Be Addresses by Talented Club Members. The Writers' Club will give a dinner and dance for members and their friends at Allaire's Restaurant, 143 East 17th Street, this evening. Short informal talks will be given during the dinner, and among the speakers will be Homer Croy, humorist and author of several successful novels, Mr. Croy will give a talk on "The Fundamentals of Humor." W. Adolphe Roberts, former editor of Ainslee's Magazine, is the President of the Writers' Club. Other members are: Allan Knighthead, Cleveland Moffett and Edward J. O'Brien.
